

Tori Kelly, Nobody Love

Everybody's looking for that something
No one ever wants to pay the price
Everyone is scared of going nowhere
But we ain't going anywhere tonight

I should be more cynical and tell myself that's not okay
(To feel this good when I'm with you)
I try my best to fight it, say I hate you but I always stay

Ain't nobody love, ain't nobody love like you do /4x

Everybody's talking 'bout the next thing
Feel like what they got ain't good enough
But all I wanna do is release the tension
Bring the conversation back to us
I should be more cynical and tell myself that's not okay
(To feel this good when I'm with you)
I try my best to fight it, say I hate you but I always stay

Ain't nobody love, ain't nobody love like you do /4x

Can we stop all the yelling baby hear me out
I want you here and now
I try my best to fight it, say I hate you but I always stay
Hey, hey, hey...
Alright, everybody's looking for that new thing
Ain't nobody, nobody, nobody love
Ain't nobody love, ain't nobody love like you do /6x
