

Tower, Dark Room

I am the son of the sky
I am the crucifix
I am the cry
I am the master of war
A dark room is my world
Life no longer turns me no
Forget my friends
War everyday...
I love the death...
I love the death...
My dreams will turn in black
Here time is unreal
In a world of sorrow
We're all one
I am the son of the sky
I am the crucifix
I am the cry
I am the master of war
I see you, in your knees
So blind if you pray
Lost another day
Get off your knees
Do something for yourself
I love the death...
I love the death...
