Treble Charger, Wear Me Down

Say something clever
If you're conscious still
'Cause You know hearing bad news
Gives me such a special thrill
And I'm not here to save you
Watch your back or rearrange you

I don't know, even so I wouldn't take on this Oh no

And I don't know how You can wear me down In the blink of an eye If I could just hold my ground For a tenth of the time

Make me an offer
I can't really use
A one time factory clearance that I can't refuse
And I'm not here to save you
Watch your back or rearrange you
And nothing ever changes
You're still cynical and dangerous

I don't know, even so I wouldn't take on you Oh no

And I don't know how You can wear me down In the blink of an eye If I could just hold my ground Even half of the time

You never get the point so what's the use? I'd never take that tone of voice with you And we both know that that's not really true It's not really true, so whats the use

And no ones going to save you 'Cause they can't rearrange you And nothing ever changes You're cynical and dangerous

So now you just wear my down In the blink of an eye If I could just hold my ground Of a tenth of the time

So go ahead wear me down I'm lost not found You got me so tied and bound I'm not quite sound

You wearing me down Quit wearing me down
