

Tree63, Alright

I believe a change is going to come
That yesterday is over
I do yeah I do yeah
The clouds have silver linings after all
I've seen them with my own eyes
It's true yeah it's true yeah
Though darkness overcomes you now
Morning will break through somehow
It's all gonna be alright it's all gonna be alright
Even this will pass tomorrow comes at last
It's all gonna be alright it's all gonna be alright
It's all gonna be alright
The grass is greener on the other side
No matter what they tell you
It's beautiful so beautiful
Sow in tears and reap with songs of joy
No sorrow lasts forever
It's true yeah it's true yeah
There never was a darkest night
Without the promise of the morning light
It's all gonna be
