

Trespassers William, Fortune

(Unreleased)

I stopped listening to fortunes
When i realized they never come true
Stopped believing what i do
Ever will unlock what i want to
Some things never happen
Haven't seen water burn
My angel won't settle for me
That is all i learned
Can i reach out for what i want
Without the burn and sting of candles
Can i empty out your heart
And fill it up with something different
Some things never happen
Haven't seen water burn
My angel won't settle for me
That is all i learned
