

Tricky, Simple Creed

Ed Kowalczyk :

Born with your back to the girl that
Spit you out on the riverbed
And with who? me?
You better back up fool
I bet you took a gun to school too
But now nobody's taking no candy
You just keep on living this tragedy
To each his own, but

I wait for you to take my hand
'Cause we need each other
We gotta love each other

Yeah
Born with your back to the girl that
Picked you up by your puppy scruff
And with who? me?
You better back up fool
And be grateful that the memory's always hiding from you
Now nobody's taking no bicycle
Maybe somebody should take your microphone
To each his own, but

I wait for you to understand
That we need each other
(I wait for to take my hand)

Tricky :

Someone should take your microphone
Someone should leave their life alone
Try again, lie again
I don't make love
i want nobody

Ed Kowalczyk :

I wait for you to take my hand
'Cause we need each other
We gotta love each other
We need each other
We gotta love each other
We gotta love, gotta love each other
