

Tricky, You Don't

Ragga: i fight evil with evil i fight evil with evil believe me how you found me take away my self-esteem anytime youre ready Tricky: you dont, you dont you dont, you dont
you dont, you dont wanna even try Ragga: I sleep, but get no rest.
You scheme, but gods know best.
Sick of trying! [Second try!] I was actually dying, oh!
When you [?] in your devil's music I did every need to use it.
Tricky: you dont, you dont
you dont, you dont
Ragga: trust you if youre trustful use you if youre useful really smooth, really evil and if youre here, and that is the reason... giant strides, twelve tribes it takes a second to wreck it sixty seconds--forget it i guess you dont hear me though
i guess you dont hear me though
you dont, you dont
you dont, you dont wanna even try Ragga: I'm not looking yours, im looking mine looking so quiet but discreet echoes to see on an unsuggested stream, unsuggested mean take it to the top, unstable the times unstable the walk and stable the walk unbearable, searable, popular demand from cradle to grave is [Abel?] even a man with my moneys and my felons, we conquer a clearance building extensions of potential but i guess you dont hear me though Tricky: you dont, you dont
you dont, you dont
Ragga: you dont, you dont
you dont, you dont wanna even try Tricky: you dont, you dont
you dont, you dont
