

Tripside, Hollywood

Say goodbye to Hollywood,
Say goodbye to all your friends,
You know you won't be needing them,
Please don't go far from me,
You know that i need you close.

(Chorus)

So here we go again
We're runnin' out of time
I'm telling myself that
I'll be just fine.

So here we go again,
We're telling our minds,
We're telling ourselves,
We're gonna be just fine.

Say hello to reality,
He doesn't care the way I do,
You'll know just what I mean in time.

But time is never really on your side,
It takes away from everything thats right,
I wanna keep you here but I know you have to fly.

Please don't lose faith in me
You know i will be near by.

(Chorus)

'Cause even if you dont care
I will be standing here waiting for, waiting for, waiting for you.

(Chrous x2)
