

Trivium, Feast of Fire

Churning through the miseries
I find a tear unshed
This emptiness inside of me
It brings me out for dead

Compulsiveness for self destruction
Impulse led by entropy

I am crawling
Crawling through the feast of fire

Sinking down
Keep sinking down

I am crawling
Crawling through the feast of fire

Burning
Sinking down until these feelings Begin to blur

Sunlight falters
As we wait the world goes up in flames
I know we will be the ones
To fill up all these graves

Compulsiveness for self destruction
Impulse led by entropy

I am crawling
Crawling through the feast of fire

Sinking down
Keep sinking down

I am crawling
Crawling through the feast of fire

Burning
Sinking down until these feelings Begin to blur
