Tune, Change

Look around, my love You're like everyone You've lost your way back home In crowded corridors Empty hearts Broken thoughts People clones In a perfect world

And nothing's ever gonna change If you wait in line for another day Don't be afraid to rearrange It's the right time for you and me to come away /2x

Look around my love, Is this what you want? You may start it over Let yourself go Rebel heart Rebel soul Run away From this evil world

'cause nothing's ever gonna change
If you wait in line for another day
Don't be afraid to rearrange
It's the right time for you and me to come away
/2x

to come away to come away to come away

'cause nothing's ever gonna change
If you wait in line for another day
It's the right time for you and me to come away
/2x
