

Tune, Icarus

my God, she's chosen me I'm losing ground beneath my feet as she's approaching me my heart is pumping to the beat is this my fantasy? how can it be that I'm the one?
guess my trouble has just begun my friend they say that girl is dangerous she's like a loaded gun you better run but how can I run?
When she is so much fun
I am Icarus, she's the Sun One step closer and I'm gone

my mind plays tricks on me shout out her name while I'm asleep losing my sanity her pretty faces makes me weep sweet curiosity
My wings have been melting in the heat now I'm drowning in the river of deceit oh no, I'm not a fool Except that I'm a fool for you kinda like the way I feel when you treat me like you do I slowly fall into decay Kinda like it too

I'd do anything for you anything you'd ever ask me to I'm a fool for you
It kinda makes me feel good
So good
