

Tune, Sky High

there's a shiny spot
falling from the sky
you should be running
but you're not
and we don't know why you wanna give it a try it's just one of those feelings you can't specify

there's a shiny spot
falling from the sky
you should be hiding
but you're not
And you know, I know why you wanna give it a shoot got that look in your eye every time it's not enough you need to amplify

there's a shiny spot
and we all know why you wanna give it a shot even though you might die se better brace yourself
kiss your kids goodbye
