

Turbo, Deceit

How will you defend yourself today
What is your game?
What are you yearning for?
What state are you putting yourself in by keeping aloof shutting the secret door and breaking the mirror with your reflection
You wipe out my life
Deceit and you
And me and we
You have courage to look
At her face for whom Today youve been looking for
Other peoples pain and tears
Deceit
Seizes your black arm
Looks outright at your face and lies
Something whispers, murmurs
You are one of the slaves
You dont know where and how Youve lost yourself.
Youve been conquered by death
