

Turbo, Spectre In The Opera

What a world do you want to lock me in?
How many parts will you sell me to be sated?
You look here,
would you like to watch the play again!?
Hyenas do advance,
a dream has started!
First scene out of few:
Something is going on. How to kill to live?
Now its your turn. Who will have the courage to take the mask off?
Fright everywhere, a criminal puts on his coat and disappears.
There is only a choir of small children, deserted court so play!
Well, act the role of life
the role of life act.
Youre not you are in,
you disappear.
Are you a shadow too?
You vanish in the candlelight and hide behind the curtain of your tears
Well, act the role of life
the role of life act.
Now it is your turn, this is the last time you can play as you want.
There are no limits!
After wards youll be alone, again alone.
Well, act the role of life
the role of life act.
