

Turilli/Lione Rhapsody, D.N.A. (Demon And Angel)

Stored in your essence
Demon and angel

In the chemical maze of divine life encoded
Wide ocean of truth, sins and lies
I will face the lost secret, the alchemical mirror
To finally know who am I

To transform my dark side
Into a fractal of light
Being demon and angel

(Inner voice) Don't hide it
(Inner choice) Behold it
(Light and shade) Survive it
D.N.A.

(Bravery) Accept it
(Synergy) Control it
(Mortal fate) Transform it
D.N.A.

No, there is no limit
For an old soul dreaming
Just a wide horizon
Mirrored in a diamond
I'd feed your fire
With a broken promise
I learned the lesson
To control my falling
To control my falling

Stored in your essence
Demon and angel

I won't harm your essence
Can't deny your presence
You'll remain a symptom
I will learn to hear you

I'd feed your fire
With a broken promise
I learned the lesson
To control my falling
To control my falling
