

TV On The Radio, Mercy

I found a glimpse of professional evil on the day I tore my style
I fell in love with professional evil on the day you left my sight
I've seen tons of people looking lost and living
And I've been clear all the same
So I can't take the lead,
But I just can't keep the same!

I found my soul
It felt so good
It's not too good

Through my sorrow
Through to soul

Just fell apart in the blink of an eye, better keep yours open wide
Fell apart in the blink of an eye, well it can't be satisfied!
I've seen tons of people looking lost and living
And I all the same
I knew it's not forever and it's nothing to keep,
But I still can't be the same

From my soul
It was so good
I should go
Through to soul

I'm watching you,
What can you do?
Not falling down?
I'm holding you!
I have to do my life
Can't live my life, my life can't live my life
My life, my life, can't live my life!
Can't live my life, my life, my life!

Have mercy of my life!
Have mercy
Have mercy, mercy, mercy of my life, yeah!
