

Twice Born, Hear Me Out

Many despise me, because I yell the truth
The Truth will set you free and I am the proof
I yell and scream and take my stand that the truth would be made known
To give the blind, helpless people hope in this dying world.

Persecute me, call me what you will
Just because of the way the Spirit's conviction makes you feel
Whether you except or deny what is real
The Word of God will stand forever and forever will stand still.

You're blind to see that your world is made of lies
Sent in your path to rob you from salvation (Jesus Christ),
From the dark one that wants to take your soul with him
To a flaming place with the rest of outsmarted men
His time will come as well, he will burn there in the end
So sin he sends to claim you, he'll take down as many as he can.

Depart from your sinful ways
Don't let yourself be robbed from a destiny in heaven
And all gifts from God
For eternal misery, torture, pain, and Hell
God gave you the choice, choose for yourself
Accept Jesus Christ in your heart today
Commit your life to Him, and keep Him there to stay
Ask Him to forgive you
Confess you sinful ways
He wants to be the hope for the rest of your days.
