

TWICE, I CAN'T STOP ME

Alarm goes off
Ring ring a ling
Whenever our eyes meet
I notice but just spin around
Yet i keep getting closer
I know it's too late

I my heart i already know
Sooner or later
I'll stop over the line
I am warning myself
You shouldn't be doing this
Every minute
Every second
My heart goes Ahead of me
Out of control

I am surrendered by that Spot
Spot spotlight
As it shines on me
I am swept into the darknes
I see the end
I know it's not right
I can't stop me
Can't stop me

Right in front of me
This red red red line
Across rom each otjer
You and i exchange glances
Wanna feel the thrilling highlight
I can't stop me
Can't stop me
