

Twilight Sleep, The Other One

friends, you say well it's not enough too long to take away this clutch of your reticence

while your bound up I want to be there now your eyes tell me more than your mouth

I'm running out on the town and I will chase you down I'm gonna fight it until you get it I never want to be the other one friends, your giving well I don't want to take it I'll wait here til I grow old I have no shame

I know you're not in love I want to know when you're leaving I want you to come around come down

you are the one for me to keep inside lay me down
I will not be chided don't make me wait all night for nothing
