

Ty Dolla $ign, Don't Judge Me (ft. Future & Swae on the liqs right now don't judge me right now off bean don't judge me I might pop a seal in the morning lately, I've been going through a lot of things

on the liqs right now don't judge me
blow the whole pound, don't judge me I don't want it of it ain't two-piece

lately, I've been going through a lot of things come up from the mud to the finner things I can't trus no one
I can't trut nobody now Only thing they want /2x

Made a mil' out of nothing

blow the whole pound, don't judge me
