

Tygers Of Pan Tang, Back For Good

Working up a sweat every day every night
A never ending fight
Things I can't forget going outta my mind
Feels like I'm living a bad bad dream

Oh No! I can't help it
Ya keep digging getting further from home
Oh No! I can't help it
I'm gonna get back where I belong

I'm going back back for good

Walking in the dark heading for the light
With no end in sight
Caged underground no perception of time
What must I do to survive

Oh No! – I can't help it
Ya keep digging getting further from home
Oh No! – I can't help it
I'm gonna get back where I belong

I'm going back back for good

Yeah theres always somewhere
Somewhere I'd rather be
Feel the sun on my skin in my hair in my heart
I'll always be free

Working up a sweat every day every night
A never ending fight
Things I can't forget going outta my mind
Feels like I'm living a bad bad dream
