

Tynsky, Half a Man

Slowly it's Lonely in
The place that I call home
Lately You don't Hold me enough
Call me enough

The way You deny it
While i'm tryna make it work
I'm so tired of fighting
I just wanna hold you close

Cause I feel cold
Without you
I'm so low without you
You make anywhere
A place I wanna be
There's no hope
Without you
Feels like home around you
I am half a man
Just half a man without you

Don't matter
If we shatter
Cause we'll find out
How it works
I'll show You
That You're more than enough, enough, enough, enough

The way You deny it
While i'm tryna make it work
I'm so tired of fighting
I just wanna hold you close

Cause I feel cold
Without you
I'm so low without you
You make anywhere
A place I wanna be
There's no hope
Without you
Feels like home around you
I am half a man
Just half a man without you

I'm just a half a man, I'm half a man without You

I don't wanna lose another minute
I just wanna get lost inside it
I don't wanna give our time a limit
I wish I could rewind it

Cause I feel cold
Without you
I'm so low without you
You make anywhere
A place I wanna be
There's no hope
Without you
I am half a man
Just half a man without you

There's no hope
Without you
I am half a man
Just half a man without you
