

Tyrone Wells, Wondering Where You Are

Will you like to watch the sunrise?
Will you have blue or brown eyes?
What are the dreams you long to share
I hope you like Stevey Wonder
Are you afraid of thunder?
I close my eyes and say a prayer youre out there somewhere

Ive been waiting all of my life for you
Ive been wishing on every shining star
Ive been watching out of my window
Wondering where you are
Wondering where you are

My hearts my only treasure
Been saving it for your pleasure
Cant wait to give my heart to you
Well walk this road together
That leads us to forever
I close my eyes and say a prayer youre out there somewhere

Ive been waiting all of my life for you
Ive been wishing on every shining star
Ive been watching out of my window
Wondering where you are
Wondering where you are

Too many nights alone
And this house wont be a home
Until Im with you

And Ive been waiting all of my life for you
Ive been wishing on every shining star

Ive been waiting all of my life for you
Ive been wishing on every shining star
Ive been watching out of my window
Wondering where you are
Wondering where you are
Wondering where you are
Wondering where you are
Im wondering where you are
Wondering where you are
Im wondering where you are
Wondering where you are
