U2, A Room At The Heartbreak Hotel

From where I stand I can see thrugh you From where you're sitting, pretty one I know it got to you

I see the stars in your eyes You want the truth, but you need the lies Like Judy Garland, like Valentino You give your life for rock n' roll Uh huh

Stand, we're on a landslide of love You got everything you want But what you need you give away

For primitive love
And a ride on the mistery train
A primitive love
A room at the Heart...
The Heartbreak Hotel
A room at the Heartbreak
Heartbreak Hotel
A room at the Heartbreak
Heartbreak Hotel

You say it's love, it's not the money You let them suck your life out like honey Turning tricks, you're on the street Selling your kisses so bittersweet

[Gospel voices]

A primitive love A and a ride on the mistery train A primitive love A room at the Heart The Heartbreak Hotel

A room at the Heartbreak, the Heartbreak, The Heartbreak Hotel, Hotel [Repeat until end]
