

U2, Let Your Love Be Known (Bono)

a little postcards from Dublin and Dublin and on the same Patrick's day little tune made up here about an hour ago
I think it's called LET YOUR LOVE BE KNOWN

it was a time
yes there was no people here yes I walked through the streets of Dublin and no one was near yes I don't know you no I didn't think I didn't care you live so very far away from just across the square and I can't reach but I can raise you can't touch but you can, you can see see across roof tube see via a phone sing, promise me you won't stop sing, oh

LET YOUR LOVE BE KNOWN
