

Uncle Brian, Handstand

When last summer came
I hit the road again
To leave your open arms
There is no lucky charm to help me get through
Be without you
I never wanted to, but I had to

Say one more time
You'll be fine
I don't wanna say goodbye
Forever and a day
I miss you more than words can say
Forever and a day
Yeah

Think of what has been
I can't explain
It's getting worse, much worse
And everytime I hear Living On A Prayer
I think of you, we'll make it, I swear

Say one more time
You'll be fine
I don't wanna say goodbye
Forever and a day
I miss you more than words can say
Forever and a day
Yeah

Forever and a day
I miss you more than words can say
Forever and a day
Yeah
