

Union 13, I Can't Stand It Anymore

In our youth, a simple life, filled with things we love
Then and now we see and realize the conflicts that confront us
As we grow
I see the walls are closing in
Then I see those who control
I can't stand it
I can't stand it anymore....
I CAN'T STAND IT ANYMORE!!!

He was like a shadow a thief in the night he took away the only thing I wanted in my life!
It's kinda' my fault for not her know the feelings that I have inside
I can't stand it!
I can't stand it anymore!
I can't stand it anymore!

Three days and weeks pass me by but my feelings for you never diminish or die!
You called me a greedy and selfish guy!
It didn't matter to me because I had you by my side!

I can't stand it anymore!
I can't stand it anymore!
But why, I can't stand it anymore
No more, just no more
I can't stand this shit anymore!
No more!
