

Unleash The Archers, Cleanse the Bloodlines

Here you are, you've finally come
You're mine, at last! I've waited so long
Listen well, this is why you are here
I need you to find my sons

Journey wide they're spread across the land
They will hide they know what I plan
My sons were born for one purpose only
Their blood my elixir of life

Return them alive, I'll kill them myself
I'll open their throats and drink from their skulls
The ritual is very precise
Bring them to me before the planets align

The altars wait in silence, an effigy
Soon their purpose divined
Blood will run as rivers upon them
The time has come to

CHORUS:
Cleanse the bloodlines, free me from the clutch of Death incarnate, my reign must never end

Unearth my descendants, find them and bring them to me
Feed my insatiable lust for blood

I can give what you've longed for your whole life
Freedom from this earthly tie
Know this in your heart of hearts
Betray me and spend eternity as mine
