

Upstanding Youth, Losing You

Better days have come my way and Im not one that likes to say that world is so gray, but things are pretty crappy.

I lost my money, lost my mom and everything I had is gone.

Go ahead and pile it on.

[Chorus:]

I knew that these days would come,
but Id rather be here playing in the sun.

Right now I may feel down,

but the worlds gonna spin and things will turn around.

Clouds are rolling back again now, Im at my ropes end, all I need is my true friend, but things are pretty crappy.

I dont care what you say.

[Chorus]
