

US5, A girl like you

Yeah its just a girl like you
Oh would you know girl
Youll be on my mind
Sit back and reclaimed that we read the line
Check it check it ya whats up whats up come on Simple words just cant describe the way
That I feel for you baby
When I look into your eyes
I feel just so hypnotized
But you youre like a dream come true to me
My love and it feels so good to tell the world that youre my girl
I feel so happy that we are here together youre a blessing in the sky
I thank the lord to have you right here by my side
Cause a girl like you
Is all I ever wanted
Cause a girl so sweet
Like you could make my dreams come true
Cause a girl like you
Could make my grey skies turn to blue
Girl I swear theres nothing that I probably wouldnt do
For a girl like you
If only you could feel
The way that I feel
Deep inside
Baby
Girl you would be surprised
When you look in my eyes and feel
Theres something real for you
My love and it feels so good to tell the world that youre my girl
I feel so happy that we are here together girl
Im feeling butterflies
And youre the reason why I feel like I can fly
Cause a girl like you
Is all I ever wanted
Cause a girl so sweet
Like you could make my dreams come true
Cause a girl like you
Could make my grey skies turn to blue
Girl I swear theres nothing that I probably wouldnt do
Cause a girl like you
Is all I ever wanted
Cause a girl so sweet
Like you could make my dreams come true
Cause a girl like you
Could make my grey skies turn to blue
Girl I swear theres nothing that I probably wouldnt do
Cause a girl like you
Is more than a dream come true to me
Youre just like a fantasy
Its you so girl just take my hand and see
Im so happy to have you right here next to me
Youre so sweet
(Youre soooo sweet)
Cause a girl like you
Is all I ever wanted
Cause a girl so sweet
Like you could make my dreams come true
Cause a girl like you
Could make my grey skies turn to blue
Girl I swear theres nothing that I probably wouldnt do
Cause a girl like you
Is all I ever wanted
Cause a girl so sweet
Like you could make my dreams come true

Cause a girl like you
Could make my grey skies turn to blue
