

Usher, Forever young

I've walked alone and.. felt as if no one cared
All the days, so dark and dim..
But it's like the raise of the sun somehow came down
To shine, when you were around
And I always thought that I'd
Never find that one..
To make me feel Forever Young..
But if I had one wish, my life to share
Would be with you and no one else
If I had open arms..
Would you have a heart to spare?
If ever you want me near..
I'll be there to run and say I'm there
Givin' you someone that understands
And a love that will never end
I can be all that you need and more..
It's time I know.. I swear, never again..
See I think it's love, I've fallen in..
And I can't figure it out, the way
It's amazing how you surround me,
By the touch of your hand, if I could..
Everything I'd write, and the blue skies
Form me in your eyes to see..
Together you can me, Forever Young
But if I had one wish, my life to share
Would be with you and no one else
If I had open arms..
Would you have a heart to spare?
If ever you want me near..
I'll be glad to run and say I'm here
Someone that understands
And a love that would never end
I can be all that you need and more..
Can't keep running,
In the same direction
There's gotta be a better way
Together you and me will be..
Forever young..
But if I had one wish, my life to share
Would be with you, and no one else
If I had open arms..
Would you have a heart to spare?
And if you ever feel that you want me near..
I'll be there to run and say I'm there
Giving you someone that understands
And a love that will never end
I can be all that you need and more..
