

Usher, I Cry

I can't keep it together
I usually don't show my emotions
But it ain't getting better
Cause you can't be blind when the eyes wide open
And I struggle
I see pain
I see only the mess we made
I see things that I can't change
And it hurts my heart to say

I cry
For the sons without fathers
And the pain the mothers hold deep inside
And I'll fight
For the future we're making
It can change
If we face it
Cause these tears won't dry
So I cry

When I look in the mirror
Do I see someone that cares for others
Do I love myself more than my sisters
...And brothers
... I don't know
Now I've seen struggles
I've seen pain
I've seen beyond the mess we've made
I've seen things that we can not change
And it hurts my heart to say

I cry
For the sons without fathers
And the pain the mothers hold deep inside
And I'll fight
For the future we're making
It can change
If we face it
Cause these tears won't dry
So I cry
