

Vader, Grand Deceiver

I fell for preaching's false your words are wrapped in silk a threat that slowly suffocates and leads to a great illusions

I know
you're fake
I know
you're a snake
I know
you're a myth
I know
it all is a great delusion

you speak
in light
you dwell
in the dark
how dare you to play with sin and morality
to wear the scars of treason you fall and death
will plummet my damned soul straight into oblivion

from the holy mountain abominations
aberrations
but you are in your very essence nothing but a lie

how you betray
all races
through the centuries the foulest pandemic bestowed and wounds I feel so deep

I know
you're fake
I know
you're a snake
I know
you're a myth
I know
it all is a just fantasy and lies
