

Valley, Last Birthday

I wanted to talk, you wanted to sleep
Put your headphones in and recline the seat
Counting the cars while you count at the sheep
I count down the hours till we get to speak

All you needed was someone there to sit next to
But all I needed was you

I'll be with you at the baggage claim
I'll be with you on your last birthday
Even if you wouldn't do the same
I'll be with you I'll be with you
I'll be with you after shitty dates
I'll be with you if your last name changed
Even if you don't reciprocate
I'll be with you I'll be with you

When your hair is on fire and you can't feel your face
When your landlord calls and you've got thirty days
You can sleep on my couch and I want you to know
When it's all underground and these flowers will grow

All you needed was someone there to sit next to
But all I needed was you

I'll be with you at the baggage claim
I'll be with you on your last birthday
Even if you wouldn't do the same
I'll be with you I'll be with you
I'll be with you after shitty dates
I'll be with you if your last name changed
Even if you don't reciprocate
I'll be with you I'll be with you

I'll be with you
I'll be with you

When you wake up every day and you're in a different place
I hope I'm not a person in your life you would erase
I understand the distance in this inconsistent pace
Wouldn't hurt if you stayed for a while

I'll be with you at the baggage claim
I'll be with you on your last birthday
Even if you wouldn't do the same
I'll be with you I'll be with you
I'll be with you after shitty dates
I'll be with you if your last name changed
Even if you don't reciprocate
I'll be with you I'll be with you

I'll be with you baggage claim
I'll be with you on your last birthday
Even if you wouldn't do the same
I'll be with you I'll be with you
I'll be with you after shitty dates
I'll be with you if your last name changed
Even if you don't reciprocate
I'll be with you I'll be with you
