Vanessa Carlton, More Than This

Cradling stones hold fire bright As crickets call out to the moonlight And as you lean in to steal a kiss I'll never need more than this

We all share the pain of our histories But the ache goes away if you could see This night under stars, well I call it peace If you say I'll never need more than this

And the trees grow so thick you can barely see through And the forest bestows all the simplest of truths And you think you'll be happy if granted one more wish But the truth is You'll never need more You'll never need more You'll never need more than this

Want so much in this life, there's so much to be We sail through our youth so impatiently Until we see That the years move along and soldiers and heroes come home And they carry a song

Don't live in forgotten times
May this always remind
You of the sea under the skies
Blue looking glass
Let's make this our story
Let's live in the glory
Time it fades away precious as a song
'Cause someday we'll be gone

Cradling stones hold fire bright As we watch the glow of the morning light Someday our bones here they will lie And so we sing

As the years move along and soldiers and heroes come home And they carry a song...

Let's make this our story Let's live in the glory Time it fades away precious as a song 'Cause someday we'll be gone
