

Vanessa Hudgens, Committed

Before I knew
What I`d go through
You made me fall in love with you
Now I`ve been falling
And your not catching me
I`d let you go
Then take you back
I`m serious as a heart attack
I`m so crazy
Obviously, naturally
I should be committed
For being committed
To someone like you
Who makes me so blue
I should be arrested
For being obsessed with
Somebody like you
Your love is like a tidal wave
Big an strong and misbehaved
Now I`m in it
I can`t sink or swim
You come around at 2 am
And I unlock my door again
Call up Bellview
I`ll be checking in
I should be committed
For being committed
To someone like you
Who makes me so blue
I should be arrested
For being obsessed with
Somebody like you
You`re a diamond in the rough
And always will be
But that`s just not enough
For the woman in me
If only heart was as smart
As this girls head
It`d be so over now
It`d be so over now
