

Vanessa Williams, You Would Be My Baby

From "The Mask"; soundtrack

If I have a secret resey
You would be my baby
If I have the perfect fantasy
You would be my baby
If the world was mine to redesign then suddenly you would find that you'd be my baby

If I wrote you poems that made you cry
Would you be my baby?
If I say the sweetest lullaby
Would you be my baby?
If I promise you the moon and stars with heaven waiting in my heart
Would you be my baby?

But if I only have true love to offer you Would that be enough to make you want me to?

I would kiss and talk you then each night
You would be my baby
Then had watch you're sleep and hold you tight
You would be my baby
I would make you mine for rich upon and never need to ask for more if you'd be my baby

You would be my baby

If I had a chance that we'll romance
If I can chose my circumstance then you'd be my baby

But if I only have
true love to offer you
Would that be enough
to make you want me to?

If I have a secret resey
You would be my baby
If I have the perfect fantasy
You would be my baby
If the world was mine to redesign
that you'd be my you would be my baby-would be my baby
