

Vanilla Ninja, Waterfalls

There's no light in your heart
I can't see the truth
Many hopes fall apart
Turn to win or lose
It's like water flooding my mind
Leaving all my dreams far behind
Please come back – together we'll try
To end a lie

I can't live
I can't live
While riding through waterfalls
And fighting through waterfalls
Yes I - I - I can't live
I can't forgive
By diving through waterfalls
Fighting through waterfalls

There are dangerous whirls
Tearing me away
On my skin waterpearls
Lead my thoughts astray
And the fear of farewell is all
That I find in each waterfall
Cos my heart seems closed by a wall
Hear my call

I can't live
Yes I can't live
While riding through waterfalls
And fighting through waterfalls
Yes I - I - I can't live
I can't forgive
By diving through waterfalls
And fighting through waterfalls

No no no no no
Yes I can't live
I can't forgive
I can't forgive

You can lessen the pain
Of a lonely day
Tell me love's not in vain
Kiss my tears away

It's like water flooding my mind
Leaving all my dreams far behind
Please come back – together we'll try
To end a lie

I can't live
Yes I can't live
Yes I - I - I can't live
By diving through waterfalls
And fighting through waterfalls

No no no no no
Yes I can't live
I can't forgive
