

Verona, You Gotta Move On

You Gotta Move On
Another day's gone
Another day you have spent alone
Thinking about her
Tears in your eyes
A true sacrifice
Always and never
You're trying so hard to find the words
That you feel sorry
Keep holding on
You have to be strong

Ref.:

You gotta move on
There's only one love standing aside you
You gotta move on
You let her get now out of your heart
You gotta move on
Try to believe, her love missed too
You gotta move on
Don't let your life lying apart
Another day's gone
But you still hide behind your fear
The fear of silence
Open your mind
Find the way how
Out of this darkness
She needs to hear the word that say
That you feel sorry
Keep holding on
You have to be strong

2x Ref.:

You gotta move on
There's only one love standing aside you
You gotta move on
You let her get now out of your heart
