

Versaemerge, Burn

Hey
It's not that things have changed,
It's all just so the same
I'm losing it all over again

And this rock, it spins so slow
Self destructive when I'm alone
It's so hard for you to let me go
Let me go

And I'm just so stubborn
And I'll never learn
And you're so concerned, that I won't return
And I've done this before,
And I'm ready for more
And I'm just so stubborn
And I'll never learn.

Hey
I argue with myself more than anyone else,
Even though it hurts like hell
Oh well?
I'm not trying to start a war
I'm not the one that you're looking for
It's so hard for you to let me go
Let me go

Oh I'm sorry,
I'm not sorry
