

Versaemerge, No Consequences

Everywhere I go,
No one says no to me,
They don't,
They don't dare.
Everything I want to feel,
The good, the bad,
Always indifferent.
Be amused before,
I walk all over you,
To get to the next one.
You were fascinated like a fool and I
Will really kill you.
You're calling me insatiable,
And I can't deny,
On the hunt for the irreplaceable,
Impossible to fight.

Should I settle for less?
You're good but I want the best,
I want you alone with the rest,
I want the world with no consequences.

Drink it up,
And be so mad,
And wild along with me,
Untill the ending.
Pray to set you free,
Cause I'll give you the hurt,
You gave it to me.
You're calling me insatiable,
And I can't deny,
On the hunt for the irreplaceable,
Impossible to fight.

Should I settle for less?
You're good but I want the best,
I want you alone with the rest,
I want the world with no consequences.

Should I settle for less?
You're good but I want the best,
I want you alone with the rest,
I want the world with no consequences.
