

Victims Family, Not Politically Correct

We are not politically correct. What did you expect? Wounds to inflict?
Words to make you act? My words are suspect. As is my intellect. And so I spew my tracts and hope they make an impact.

We are not politically correct. What the $*@()%& did you expect?
Wounds to inflict? Words to make you act? I just can't get your respect.
And so I'll keep myself intact instead of being correct.
