

Victoria Monét, Hollywood (feat. Earth, Wind, & F

Simple things, little things
Get lost in all the glitter and the bling
In the machine (in the machine)
Remember the trees and the bees
And memories of when you used to be
A kid on a swing

But I'm in Hollywood
Dreaming bigger than I ever should (ooh)
I'm a product of Hollywood
Dreaming bigger than I ever should (Dreaming bigger than I ever)
(Dreaming bigger than I ever)

What do you live for what are you here for what do you breathe for what do you stand for
What would you die for
What will you leave when you're gone
What are you here for
How could you give more
How could you love more
What do you live for

But I'm in Hollywood
