

Viet Cong, Bunker Buster

Go where, go where fluorescent primates teem and wind through the neon screens that scan over

Swelling, screaming, it's a deranged enhancement
Deflated amplifiers overdeveloped in incompetent ways

Slowly, slowly fall through the snow so softly
Carry me where we're going
Nowhere at all, we're going
Nowhere to go

Swelling, screaming, it's a deranged enhancement

What side are you on, man?
I think we look the same
I know eventually you'll tell me where you came from
You'll tell me where you came from /3x
