

Viki Gabor, STILL STANDING

I used to stand on the edge of the mountains

Talk

I hate to saying this

I've been searching deep for

I turn around

And see them clouds

Run from me

Like falling down

As i was invisible

As i was invisible

I am still standing

I am still standing

I am still standing

I am still standing

The time is passing by

I am still thinking

And all those stars

Stop

Got to open my eyes

There's no fear

There's no tears

I feel blood running in my veins

I know that;ssounds unreal

By that's the way it is

I am still standing

I am still standing

I am still standing

I am still standing

Listing to the voice of the mountains

Listing to the voice of your heart

Listing to the voice of the mountains

Ten noice is carry for you all

Now, I am still standing

I am still standing

I am still standing

I am still standing
