

Viking, The Statue

No, don't touch me,
why do you want to destroy my beauty that lived eternally engraved in the centuries?

No, don't hurt me,
why do you want to censure
the mind of the artist
just to have fun?
You don't fight any war!

May the Statue live for ever May Art live for ever away from destruction

destruction, so common in our time.

No, don't mock me,
why do you want to erase the wisdom of the man creator of art as ideology?

No, don't swop me,
why do you want to change
the ground under my feet?
I belong to this soil
since the day of my birth!

May the Statue...
