Viper, Blast!

I listen almost everyday To the same lies hitting my face That will be better in the end But I don't really give a damn I trust a lot in who I am That's the only way Blast! I know I know you're waiting But I'm not gonna be waiting Waiting for the time That you blast me It took some time to realize If you don't kill sometimes you die I use the weapons that I have So if you wanna f**k 'em all You gotta make 'em beg and crawl That's my way Blast! I know I know you're waiting But I'm not gonna be waiting Waiting for the time That you blast me
