

Visions Of Atlantis, Winternight

Mournful cries are in my mind
In this stormy winternight
Paint a shadow on my heart
A black cloud rains over me

See, this is me, no pleasure to see
Still the dark cloud is surrounding me
Scared, to be a different kind of my own
And the storm is raging on and on

Cold winternight no way out of the dark
No one's leading me back to the place I belong

Tried to breathe in rays of light
I can't be without my winternight

See, this is me, no pleasure to see
Still the dark cloud is surrounding me
Scared, to be a different kind of my own
And the storm is raging on and on

Cold winternight no way out of the dark
No ones leading me back to the place I belong
Uncovered secrets will never be found
No rebirth, no regrets never be the one to hold

Cold winternight no way out of the dark
No ones leading me back to the place I belong
Uncovered secrets will never be found
No rebirth, no regrets never be the one to hold
