

Waik, Save You

I wake to find you in my arms
The warmth stricken from your heart
If I could steal all, the pain you've gone through Believe me I would

Here I am, Here I am take me away

My sides ache from holding on
I wish I knew how

Here I am, Here I am, Take me away
From here

So low, I'll Save You, So low
I'll save you

I wake to find me in your arms
With you I know now
