Wallows, I Don't Want to Talk

[Verse 1: Dylan, with Braeden]
If I reflect, look back on that other place and time
When you left for a while and I kind of lost my mind (Hey)
Realized the older I get, I get more insecure
If I don't have you by my side, then I can't be sure

[Chorus: Dylan & Braeden]
I'm not alright, but I don't need comfort
I don't want to talk
So could you tell me that it's over, tell me that it's over
Tell me that it's over now?
Then I could shut this off
(Woo!)

[Verse 2: Dylan]
I went to send you off, felt off by what I saw there
Him in the leopard pattern coat that you wish you'd shared
You in your brand new sweatsuit and your fresh platinum hair
Your Fjällräven Kånken's packed and I watch him stare

[Chorus: Dylan & Braeden]
I'm not alright, but I don't need comfort
I don't want to talk
So could you tell me that it's over
Tell me that it's over
Tell me that it's over now?
Then I could shut this off

[Bridge: Braeden & Dylan]
Feeling like my mind's wiped
He looks more like your type
If I leave you tonight, will he leave your eyes wide?
Bet he didn't think first when he did a crowd surf
Effortlessly expert, attention grabber
Don't usually cry but looks like that's over
I start to lose sight of myself, and I wish I could shut it
Wish I could shut it off

[Chorus: Dylan & Braeden]
No, I'm not alright but I don't need comfort
I don't want to talk
So could you tell me that it's over?
Tell me that it's over
Tell me that it's over now
And I could shut this off
